CHAPTER 2 Message to Ephesus

^aTo the angel of the church in Ephesus write:

The One who holds the seven stars in His right hand, the One who walks among the seven golden lampstands, says this:

word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

10 *I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like the sound of a trumpet,

11 saying, "Write in a book what you see, and send it to the seven churches."

12 And I turned to see the voice that was speaking with me. And having turned I saw seven golden lampstands.

13 And in the midst of the lampstands one like a son of man, clothed in a robe reaching to the feet, and girded across His breast with a golden sash.

14 His head and hair were like a flame of fire, and His feet were like burnished bronze, when it has been cast into a furnace, and His voice was like the sound of many waters.

15 And in His right hand He held seven stars; and out of His mouth came a sharp two-edged sword; and His face was like the sun shining in its strength.

16 And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as a dead man. And He laid His right hand on me, saying, "Do not fear; I am the first and the last, and the living one. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.

The One who has the sharp two-edged sword says this: "I know where you dwell, where you stand, and where you are; and you hold fast to My name, and did not deny My name, even in the days of Antipas, My witness, My faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells."

15 *Thus you also have some who in the same way hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans; or else I am coming, and will make war against them with the sword of My mouth.

16 *He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, to him I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and a new name written on the stone which no one knows but he who receives it.

17 *And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write: "The Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet are like burnished bronze, says this: 'I know your deeds, and your love and faith and service and perseverance, and that your deeds of late are greater than at first.'

20 *But I have this against you, that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, and she teaches and leads My bond-servants astray, so that they commit acts of immorality and eat things sacrificed to idols.

21 *And I gave her time to repent; and she does not want to repent of her immorality.

22 *Behold, I will cast her upon a bed of sickness, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of her deeds.

23 *And I will kill her children with pestilence; and all the churches will know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts; and I will give to each one of you according to your deeds.

24 *But I say to you, the rest who
