24 *Now to Him who sits on the throne and who holds the seven stars in His right hand, I write to you: Keep your firm grasp of the seven stars, so that they will not slip from your hand, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven angels of the seven churches, and the seven churches.

The One who has the sharp two-edged sword says this: I know where you dwell, where Satan's throne is; and you hold fast My name, and did not deny My faith, even in the days of Antipas.

Message to Ephesus
To the angel of the church in Ephesus, I write: I know your works, that you keep the commandments which I have written to you, that you do not deny the name of Jesus Christ who has come in the flesh, that you have not eaten of the bread of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

13 I know where you dwell, where Satan's throne is; and you hold fast My name, and did not deny My faith, even in the days of Antipas. My witness, My faithful one, who is in the Spirit and says, 'Blessed are those who do not eat of the bread of the Nicolaitans, which I have written to you, that you do not eat of the bread of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.'

3 and you have perseverance and endurance, because you have not denied My name, and you have kept My commandments, which I have written to you, that you do not eat of the bread of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

14 But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit acts of immorality.

4 Remember that you have left your first love, and you have not kept My commandments, which I have written to you, that you do not eat of the bread of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

15 Thus you also have some who in the same way hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans. REPENT
16 Repent therefore, or else I will come to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of My mouth.

5 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden things of the book of the prophecy of this book, and I will not blot out his name from the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father and His angels.

17 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden things of the book of the prophecy of this book, and I will not blot out his name from the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father and His angels.

6 And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write: The Spirit and the bride say, 'Come.' And he who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give the crown of life, and I will not blot out his name from the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father and His angels.

18 And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write: I know your works, that you are like the Nicolaitans, who eat of the bread of the Nicolaitans, which I have written to you, that you do not eat of the bread of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give the crown of life, and I will not blot out his name from the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father and His angels.

The One who has the sharp two-edged sword says this:

THE TOWER OF BABEL AND SYSTEMS INTEGRATION

The parable is older than writing itself, coming to us from the first murmurings of civilization. Yet its lesson seems to have been aimed specifically at the twentieth century. In Genesis, Chapter 11, we read of an unnamed people building a great city on the plain of Shinar (Mesopotamia). To the marvel of his contemporaries, these folk were awesomely clever. They all spoke one common language, and because of this, nothing was impossible to them. The plan of these ingenious people was to erect a huge temple tower a square, whose top would reach into heaven; it was to be an entry to their own kingdom and would be called Babel, or 'Gate of God.' But God himself came down and walked the streets of their city, and saw their project under construction. The hubris of this arrogant race angered him. He passed his hand over the city and cursed it. Now where there had been one language, were suddenly hundreds. Confusion reigned. Nothing was possible. The people abandoned their city and scattered across the land, taking with them their bewildering tongues. And their vaunted temple, the Tower of Babel, was left uncompleted, a caution for the world. The lesson taught by this ancient parable is uncannily pertinent for us in the twentieth century. The revolution in information technology during the past four decades has brought with it the ancient curse of Babel.

Even as we witness the birth of new computer companies, all fiercely competing with faster, more powerful hardware, new formats and new languages, all contending for use in space, the military, or private industry. To this end, Lockheed has actually been able to work around the Babel effect. And with everyone once again speaking the same language, who knows what wonders are possible?

Then another angel [#3] a third one - followed them saying with a loud voice,

"If anyone worships the beast and his image AND receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand - he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God which is mixed in full strength in the cup of His anger - and he will be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb - as the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever - they have no rest day and night - those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name"

[Great Tribulation witnessed by angels and Jesus as God's Wrath executed]

Here is the perseverance of the saints who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus - I heard a voice from heaven, saying,

"Write: 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on' - 'Yes' says the Spirit 'so that they may rest from their labors - for their deeds follow with them.'"

Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and sitting on the cloud was one “like” a son of man having a golden crown on His head [#4] and a sharp sickle in His hand. Another angel [#5] came out of the temple crying with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud,

“Put in your sickle - reap for the hour has come because the harvest of the earth is ripe”
angel #5 tells #4 what to do

Then he who sat on the cloud swung his sickle over the Earth and Earth was “reaped”

θερίζω therizo = grain harvest AFTER sowing

1] NOT Jesus, because He is always “in the midst of the throne” or “on Mt Zion”

He's never hovering over Earth in a cloud

2] This being is “like” a son of man, but is not human - Similar to ‘son of man’ used in Psalm 144 [Heb. 2:6] Ezek. 22 - Similar to ‘sons of God’ used for angels in O.T.

3] with him there are then 7 angels [only 6 without] John consistent use of “7”

4] Jesus nowhere else carrying sickle [Matt. 3 Luke 3 ‘winnowing fork’ to separate] or wearing a gold crown [Jesus is brilliant, radiant, shining but no crown – only thorns]

5] this ‘son of man’ is given an order by angel [Jesus does not take orders from angels]

The One who has the sharp two-edged sword says this:

2 *I know where you dwell, where you stand, and where you are; and you hold fast My name, and did not deny My name, even in the days of Antipas, My faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan was at work.

11 *And I will kill her children with pestilence; and all the churches will know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts; and I will give to each one of you according to your deeds.

12 *But I say to you, the rest who
